

Important Information About Your Internal Appeal Rights

What If I Do Not Agree With This Decision?

You may have the right to appeal any decision not to provide or pay for an item or service, or if you think we made an error. File your appeal within 180 days in writing, in the Member Portal or by phone from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. CT, Monday-Friday. If a determination is not in your favor, you have the right to bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Who May File An Appeal?

You or your authorized representative (such as a doctor, family member or attorney) may file an appeal. You must sign the Appeal Form, however, if the request is urgent and a doctor files the appeal, your signature is not required.

How Do I File An Appeal?

Complete the Appeal Form & send it to the address below. Or, contact Customer Service to file your appeal over the phone. Appeal information is also available in the Member Portal at sanfordhealthplan.com/memberlogin.

What Should I Include With the Appeal Form?

Send supporting medical records, doctors' letters or other information that explains why we should pay for this service. Keep copies of all documents and this notice.

How Long Does The Appeal Process Take?

We must give you a decision within 30 calendar days.

What If I Need an Answer Right Away? If your situation is urgent under the law, your appeal review will be within 72 hours. A situation is considered urgent when waiting the routine appeal processing time (shown above) could seriously jeopardize your life or health, your ability to regain maximum function; or would subject you to severe pain that cannot be managed without the service or treatment. If your need is your need is urgent, contact us by phone.

What Happens Next?

If you appeal, people not involved in the first decision will review your case. If we deny your appeal or you do not receive a timely decision, you may be able to ask for an external review by an independent third party who will review the denial & issue a final decision. Your coverage won't be affected during the appeal process or if you are requesting an extension for a previously approved or ongoing service/treatment.

Can I Get Information About My Appeal?

Yes, contact us to request free, reasonable access to or copies of all documents of benefits, guidelines, &/or protocols relating to your appeal, billing & diagnosis codes (if you think a coding error may have occurred) or any other related documents. A request for denial, diagnosis, or treatment code information is not considered a request for an internal or external appeal.

In compliance with the Mental Health Parity & Addiction Equity Act of 2008 (MHPAEA), when information is requested regarding medical necessity for the treatment of a mental health & substance use disorder, documents will be provided within 30 business days. This information will include processes, strategies &/or standards used to determine medical necessity.
